They symbolize the enormous primitive power of an organism that was once the hegemon of the world. Capturing that mentality, there are many games inspired by dinosaurs and it can be said that all games on this topic are popular and appreciated by many players. Currently, you can easily earn a survival game for mobile phones. However, finding a new and addictive survival game, which can make you spend hours enjoying it is difficult. So let me propose to you, this is Dinosaur Rampage, a game of Geisha Tokyo. In recent times, Geisha Tokyo has emerged as a game developer with very simple but extremely attractive titles like Snowball.io, Traffic Run, ... New lives warAs mentioned above, Dinosaur Rampage is a survival game on the subject of ancient dinosaurs. You'll be involved in survival battles in an actual city simulation space, where you have control of a giant T-Rex tyrant dinosaur to attack people. However, your main goal is not to eat people or destroy the city, but instead become strong and tremendous in being able to defeat enemies who are other bloody dinosaurs. It's all about being number one, literally having a survival game. The reason, however, is that Dinosaur Rampage is a new survival game because the rules are changed a little. It's still the goal of becoming the no. 1, but you may not need to defeat all the other enemies on the map, as long as you have the highest score from start to finish. The truth is, you can barely defeat all enemies in a game by only 2 minutes. Thanks to this, it has created a game with a diverse game and there are really many ways for you to master the game and become the champion dinosaur. GameplayAt the start of the game, you and other players are placed in the same game in a simulated city. And it's all on one level at the beginning, that is, with a very beautiful little dinosaur. That love will quickly disappear when those dinosaurs destroy the city and eat people. Only the destruction of more and more buildings and people will bring your experience to level. When you go to higher levels, you can eat the lower level dinosaurs yourself and it's much more effective. However, you can also suffer from greater than eating again. The ancients had the saying Know who knows me, win a hundred wars. So be smart in choosing opponents. You can see your surrounding enemies with triangular arrows pointing in their direction. And thanks to that, you can also know what attacks or flees the level of enemies. Pay attention, during each game, sometimes there will be meteors falling from the sky. It's not just dinosaurs that even humans don't like the rocks. They were the cause of erasing dinosaurs, so be careful. TipDinosaur Rampage has the same style of play as Crowd City. That's why there will be plenty of players finding their own ways to get easier wins from previous games. With a beginner, you might need some of our small tips. Active play: You can be soft in early levels when you just take people off to enjoy a little experience. However, you need to find and eat smaller dinosaurs when you've reached higher levels. This will bring more benefits. Find support items: Sometimes you'll come up with a rainbow man or an unexpected piece of meat in the middle of the road, which is worth upgrading. This brings more experience to level. Destroy the TV Tower: You know Tokyo TV Tower? It's a great building and skyscraper, which will surely have plenty of resources. Let's destroy it! Performing the tasks set before each game also helps you add more gold coins to be rewarded. Unlock costumes After that every game, you can get gold money rewards. Depending on the position after each game, you can earn more money. With the money earned, you can use it to unlock more dinosaurs. However, the tyrant dinosaur T-Rex is the only dinosaur of the game, you can only change their color. Appearance doesn't help you faster, stronger, but it can bring you interesting experiences. Dinosaur Rampage's graphics are designed based on 3D, but it's not really beautiful and sharp. Objects such as people, houses, trees, vehicles, ... is simply simulated, help users. However, the graphics aren't really detailed to help the game reduce horror and violence.
